THEME (THE MANY FACES OF SALOME HIGH)
THE ODYSSEY 1967

EDITOR ROBIN GRUMBLES
CO. EDITOR BERT HAROLD

Dedication

This, the 1967 Odyssey, is dedicated to all the Students who have attended Salome High School. Through these pictures we'd like to give you a glimpse of our many activities.

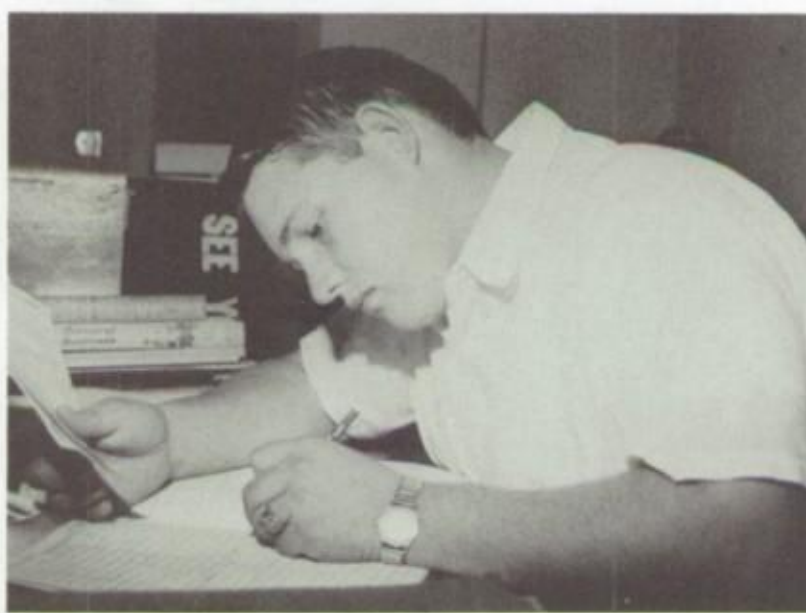

PRINCIPAL

The many faces of Salome High School look upon the job of preparation. Each student is forcing the tools with which he will build his particular niche in the society of which he is a part. The extent of his participation now is a measure of his future contribution. We hope that each student here takes full advantage of the opportunity to force effective tools of knowledge, social grace, physical well-being, and understanding, with his maker. Not only is this year's annual dedicated to the students, but so is the school dedicated that each of them may become an effective citizen.

EDITOR

The staff for the 1967 Odyssey is due much credit for their hard work and devotion to the task. They struggled through oft-times disgusting hazards that you might enjoy this edition. I share the pride with which they present to you - the 1967 Odyssey. My sincere thanks goes to Mrs. Charman for the many hours of (eye-crossing) proofreading that she has done. Also, our appreciation for direction and invaluable aid goes to Miss Gallardo. It is our hope that you appreciate this annual as much as we have enjoyed putting it together for you.

Senior Class Will and Prophecy

- I, MARCIA EVANS, do hereby will my ability to stand up straight to Mr. Charman and my long blonde hair to Mr. Craig.
- I, FRED PROBST, will to Bert Harold my good looks and ways with girls. To Robin Mills, my driver's license and my Ford station wagon to drive.
- I, ROBIN GRUMBLES, do hereby will my practice T-shirts to Mr. Charman and to Harley Harold, so that they may be strong. I also will my many rolls of used tape to Mr. Wease, and my ability to give Fran a hard time to Mr. Charman.
- I, CAROL CLINGMAN, will my ability to turn twice and make it to first base to anyone who thinks he can get there without thinking twice.
- I, GLENN SINGER, do hereby will my long exhausting walks to and from school each day to Tiny Williams, so that the exercise will get him in shape for the 50-yard dash for his diploma.
- I, JULIA REESE, do hereby will the name "Spooky" to Susie Matthews, to Debbie Matthews my ability to drive, and Homecoming Queen to Sharon Mork.
- I, "GEORGE" MATURO, do hereby will my math book to my brother Bob, so that he will repeat math next year.
- I, ROBERT BARRETT, do hereby will my great ability to play chess to Sharon Connor and a puff of exhaust smoke of my MG to Ernie Bristol.
- I, STEVE GILES, will my irresponsible actions to Charlie Craig--not that he needs them, and to Les Stein my great ability to do well in yearbook.

Salome High Frogs

To Bert,

Now that I come right down to it, I don't know what to say. If I get too mushy, it might make you sick! On the other hand, I can't treat you as just "another guy"! So, here goes —

You know, you're really something! I can't quite explain it, but it's different and I like it!

We get along great together, don't we? We kid around one minute, then were serious the next. I think that's just great! And you're such a wonderful guy! I'm glad I was a fool and hung on as long as I did. But then, I'm really not a fool if things can turn out like they did.

I know I'll always be happy with you and I only hope I can always make you happy —

(I'm artist, too!)

I probably get boring sometimes, but then, I make up for it by being twice as interesting every so often, right?

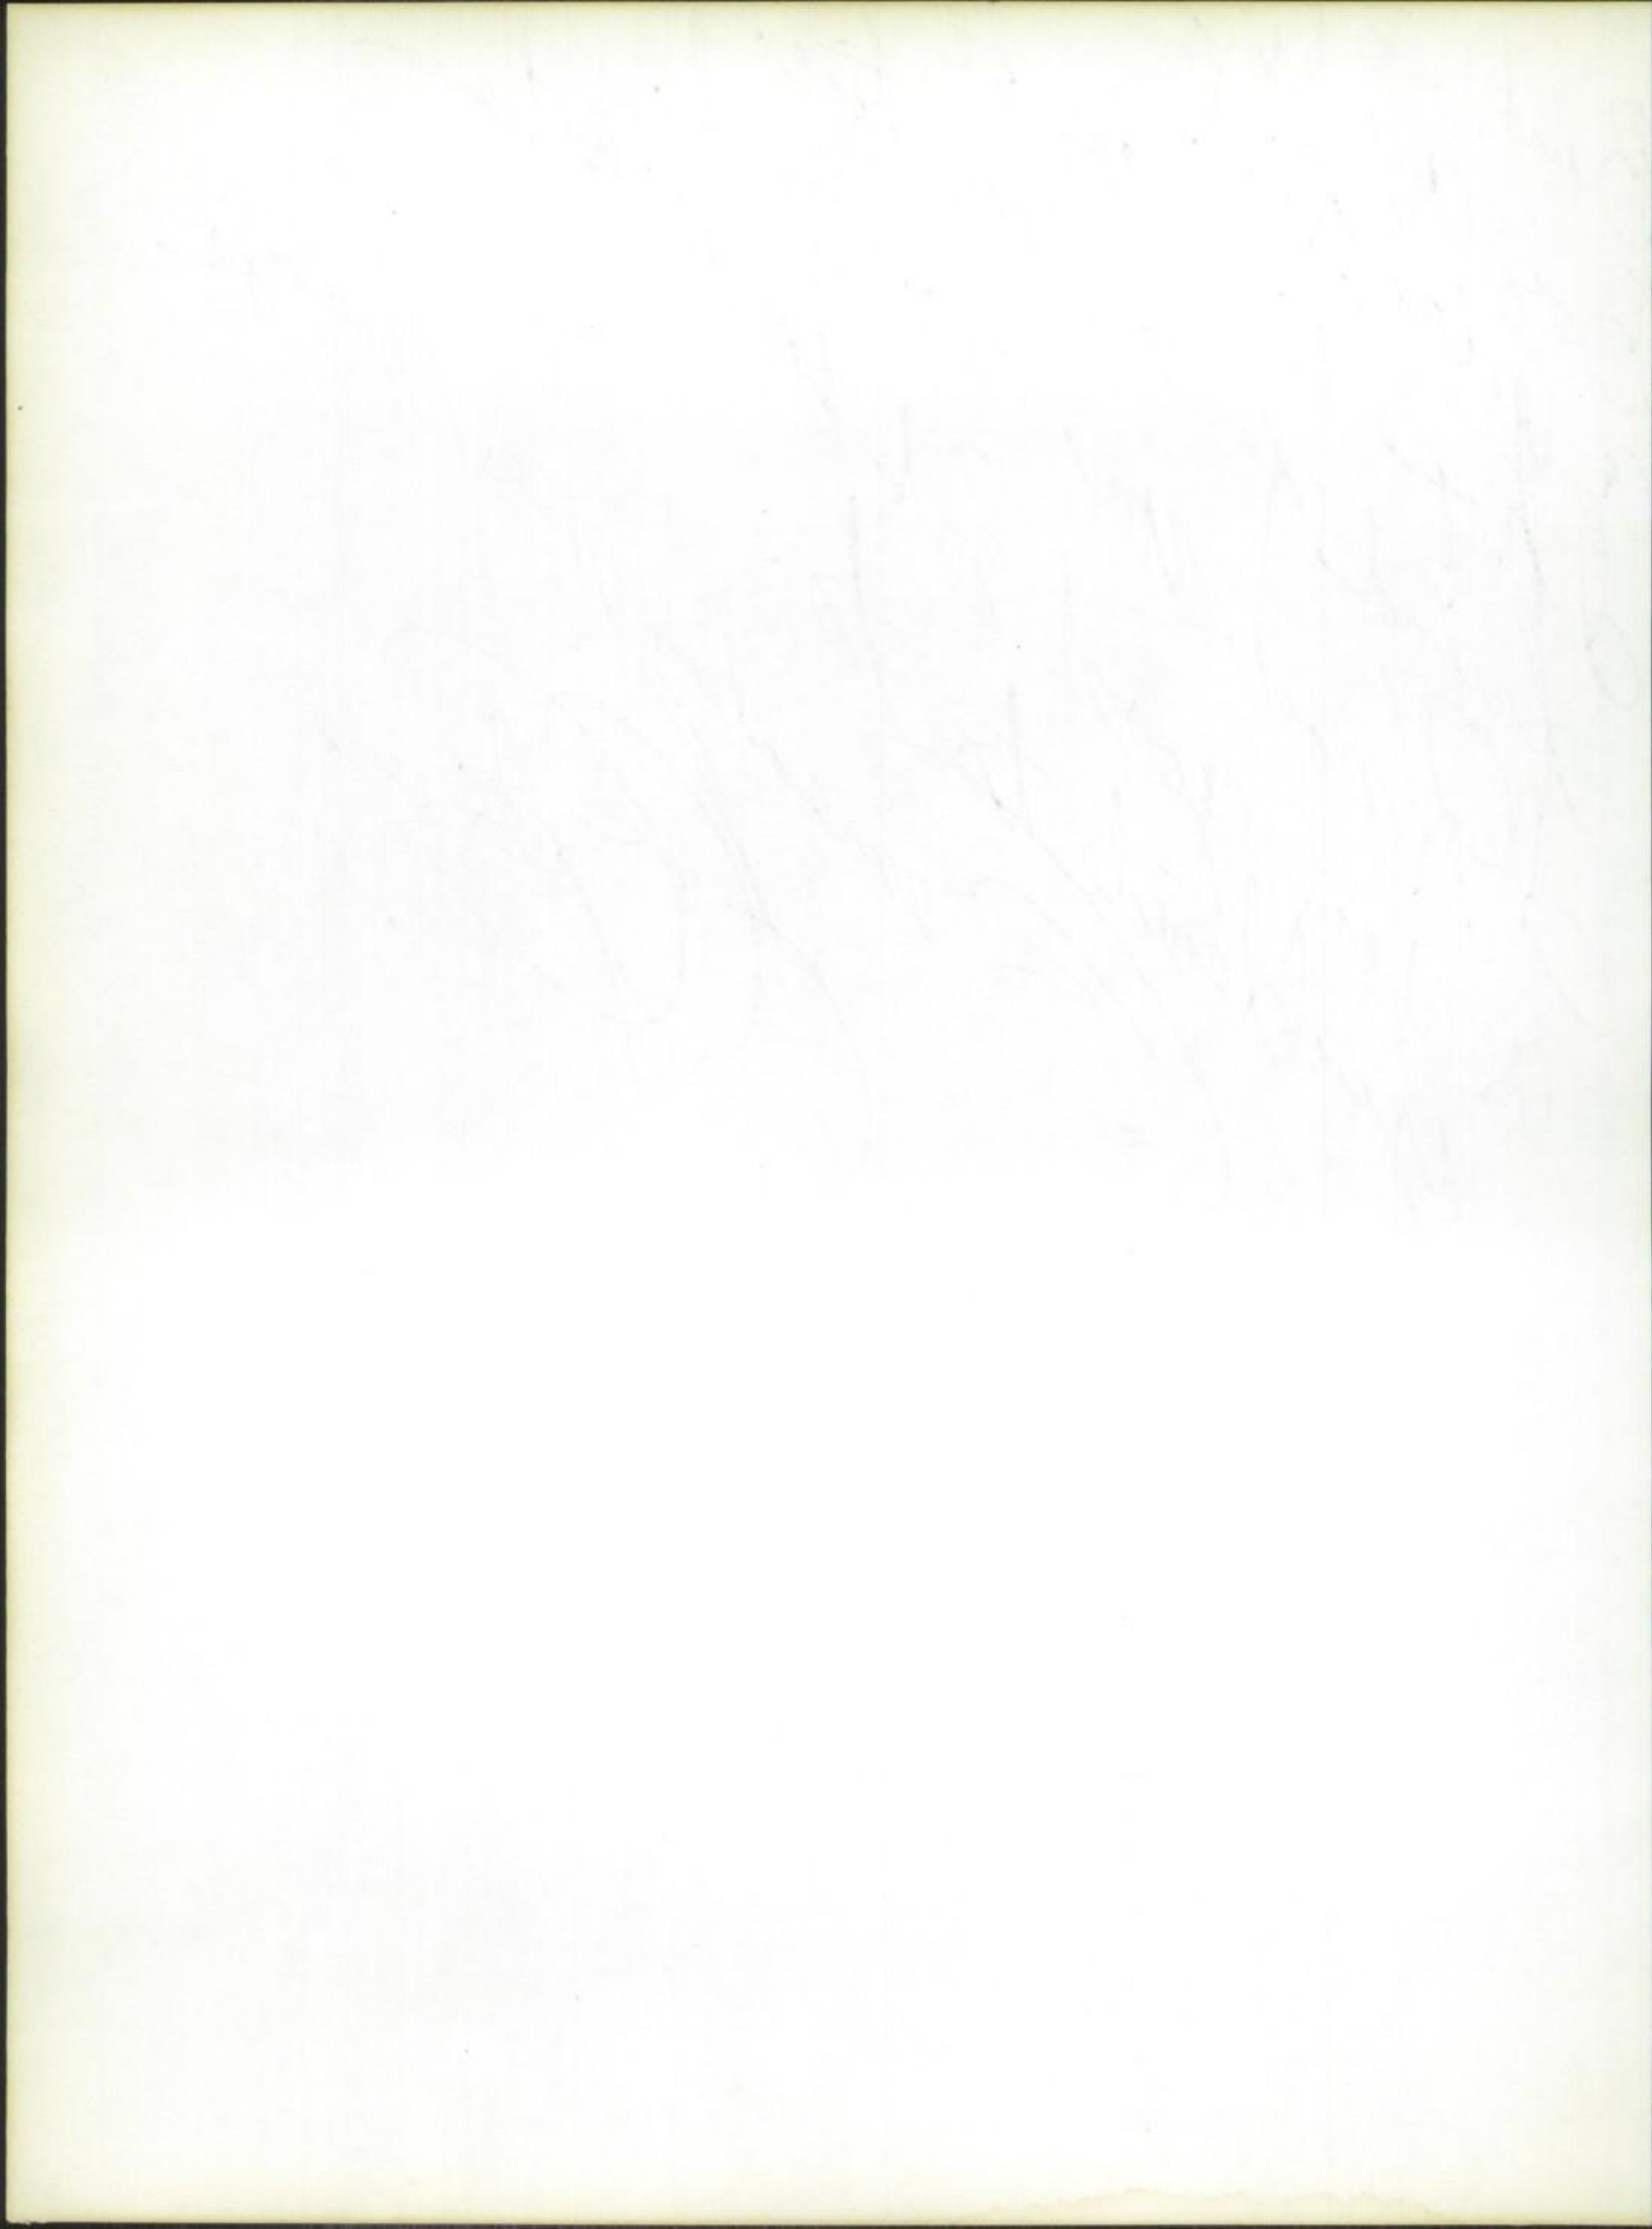

I really enjoy being with you, no matter what mood you're in. Our serious talks are something else — I don't know if they help you, but sometimes they help me to understand you better or even myself.

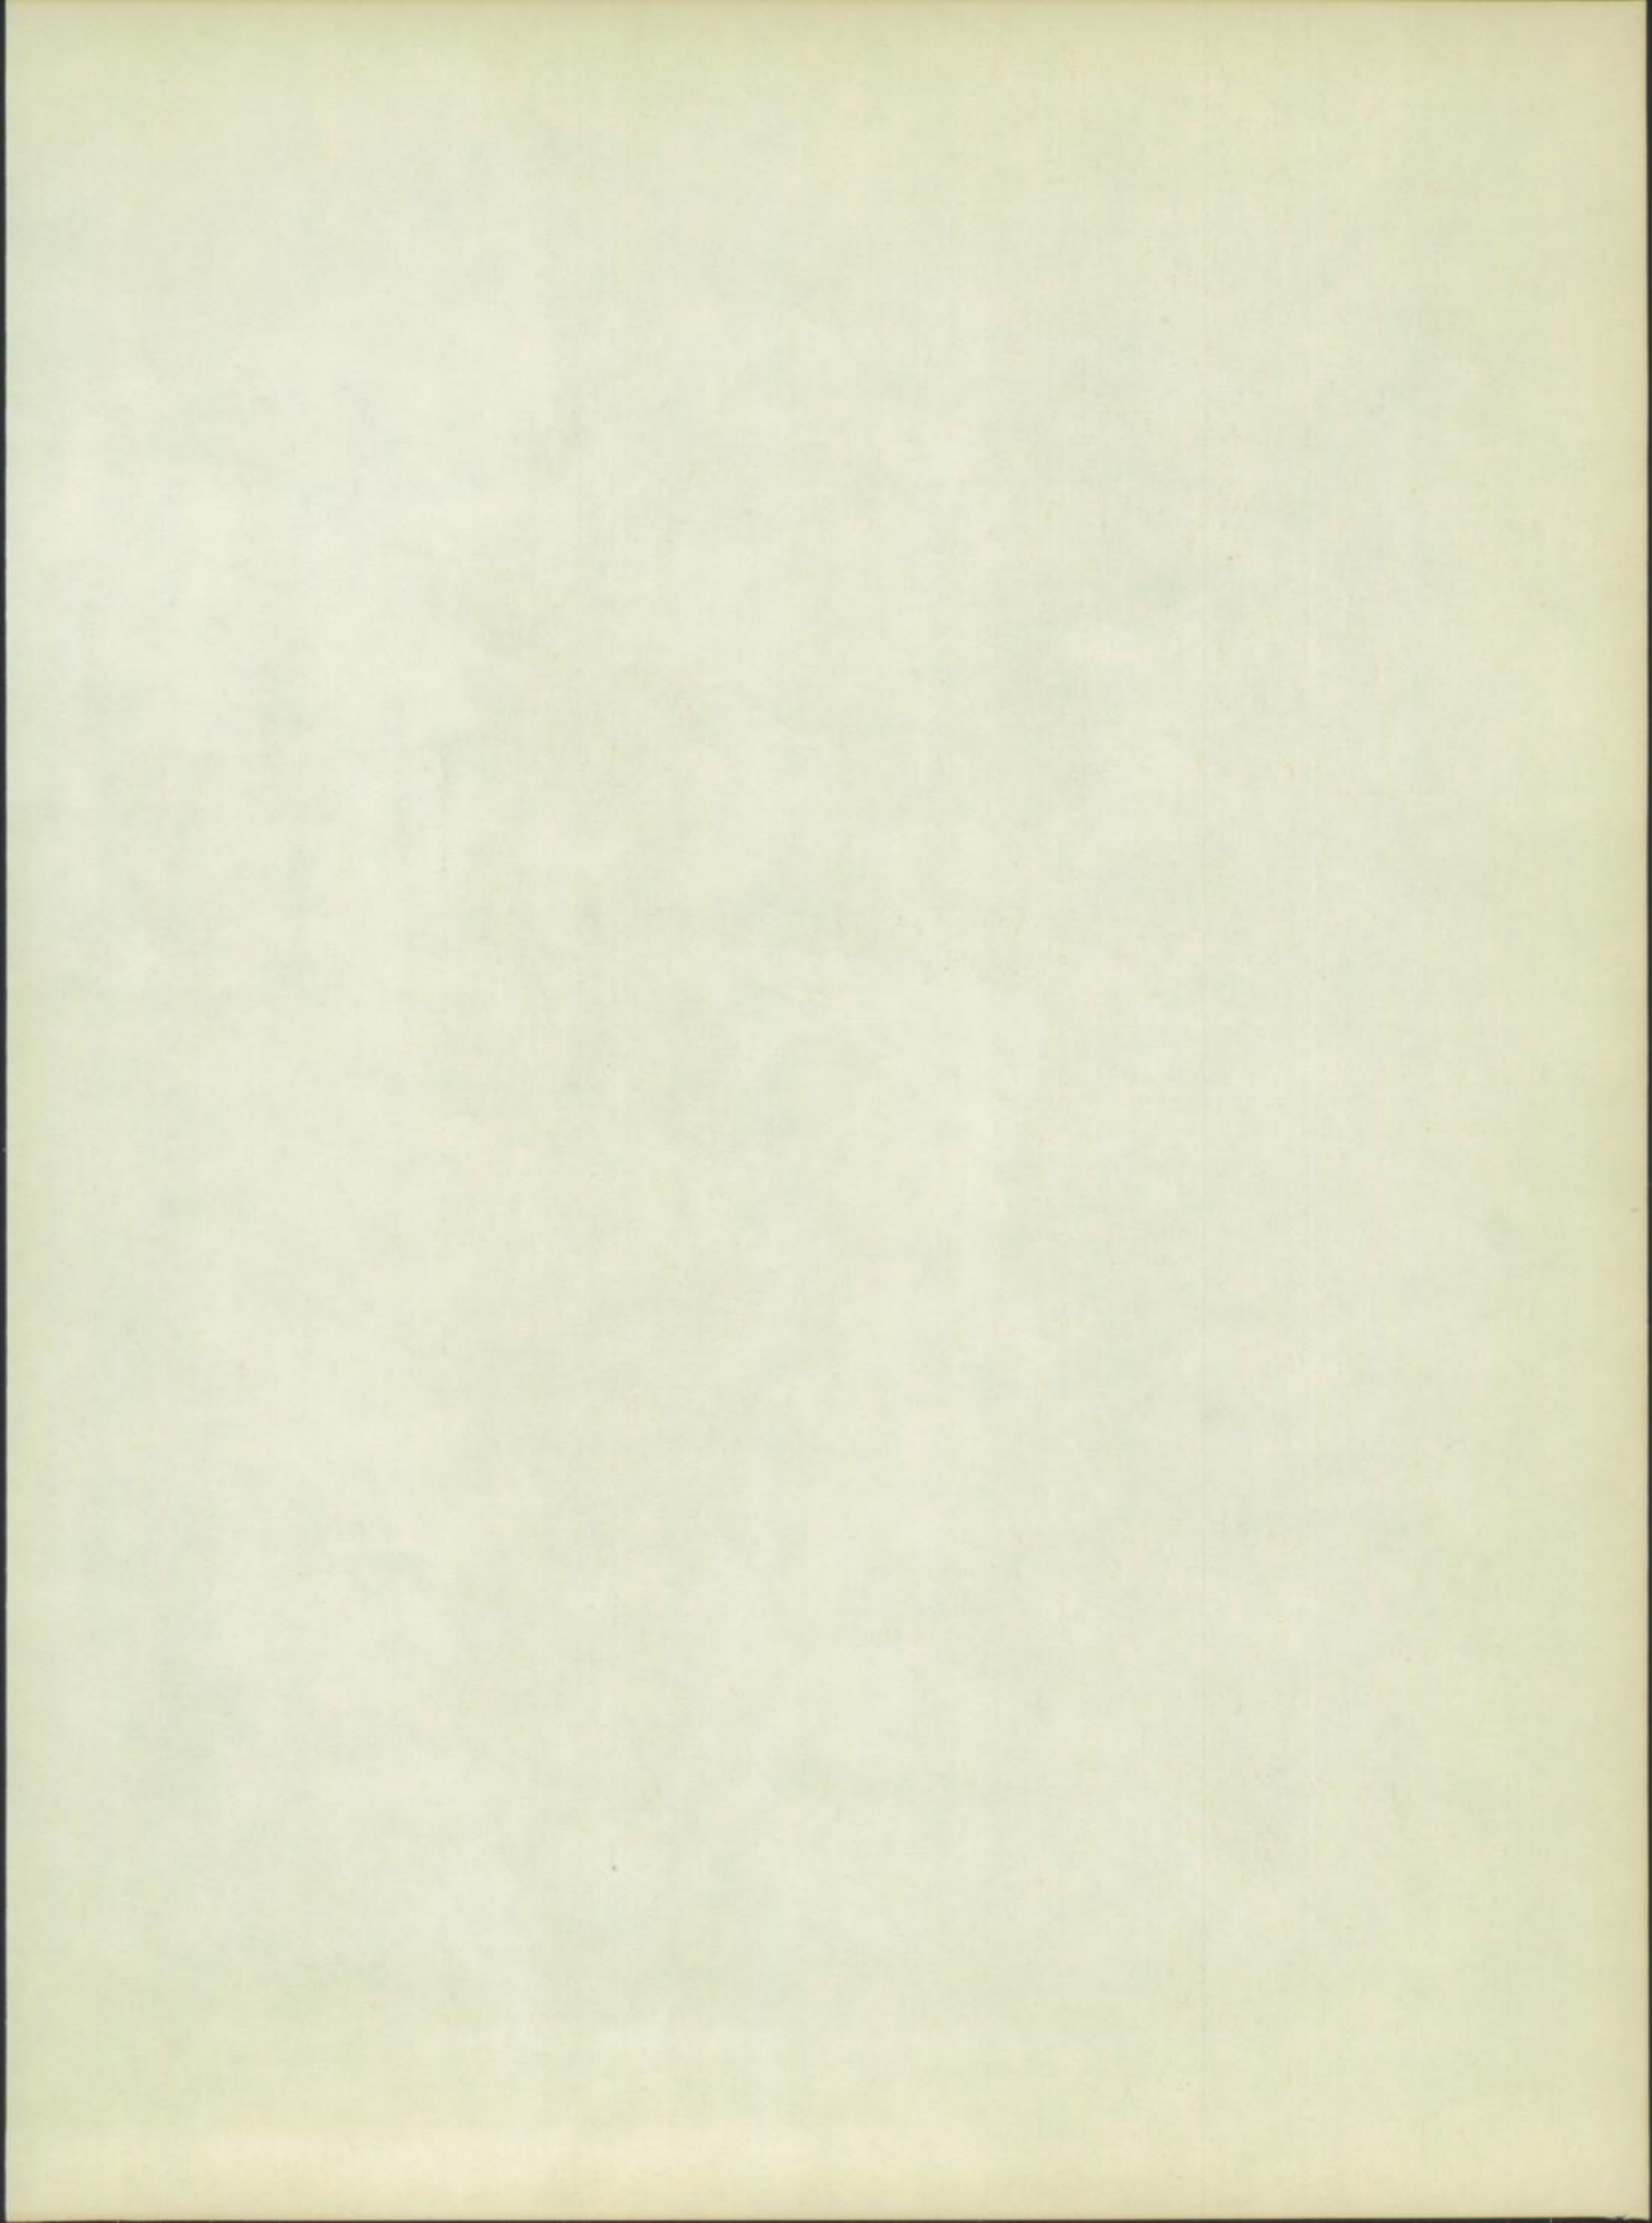

There's so much more I can say, but I don't want to get too mushy! Besides, I can tell you things (that are mushy) when we're alone, right?

So I'll go now. Do you like my creative writing? I could write a short story if I tried. Well, I'll wish you the usual "Best of luck" and add a line of my own — "Be Groovy!"

Love ya,
Linda

But are you Boss nice? We can be a hope for a long time.
I hope we will do
friends for a long time.
I hope we will do
a very good job in what ever you decide to do.
Remember me always

Best,
A real good
Mrs. I really like being with
you. Love you
John
